Weather Thursday: high 66, low 33. Friday was a perfect spring day.

Sears, Roebuck and Co., searching for 20 kids to model clothes for its catalog, has received more than 200,000 pictures from responding parents. They have had to hire 18 people to help sort out the mail.

Britain's last African colony, Rhodesia, became the new black-ruled nation of Zimbabwe Thursday. 30,000 people cheered as Britain's Prince Charles handed over the instrument of power (constitution) to the country's new prime minister, Robert Mugabe.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile is at the Episcopal Parish House today from 12:30 to 5:30 p.m. This visit of the Bloodmobile is a tribute to Dr. Wm. R. Bosien.

The Polk County Commissioners will meet tonight at 7 O'clock at the Mill Spring School.

All children who will be 5 or 6 on or before Nov. 1st should register for kindergarten or first grade Tuesday at O. P. Earle Library.

MEET TONIGHT

The Tryon Band Booster Club will meet tonight at 7:30 at the band room.

Today Is The Day!

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the Parish Hall in Holy Cross Episcopal Church today from 12:30 to 5:30. The Red Cross is urging everyone who is over 17 years of age, weighs more than 110 pounds and is in good health to donate a pint of blood as a special tribute to the late Dr. William R. Bosien. The process is simple and the blood is urgently needed for use by doctors in this area and at St. Luke's Hospital. — Reporter

"The Salt Syndrome" At Kiwanis Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis Club will meet Tuesday at 12:45 p.m. at The Dinner Bell. The film, "The Salt Syndrome", produced by the American Security Council Education Foundation for the Coalition for Peace Through Strength will be shown. The objectives of the coalition are to inform all Americans of the dangerous risk our country is taking by unilaterally disarming in the face of an all-out Soviet buildup, and to work for the adoption of a national strategy of peace through strength. Allan Biles is in charge of the program.

Fine Arts Center Buys Binks Property

John Landrum, President of the Tryon Fine Arts Center, has announced the purchase of the Albert E. Binks property, adjacent to the Center, at a cost of $75,000.

Arthur Farwell, a former director, has donated half of the purchase price as a memorial to his son, Fred B. Farwell, who died last year. In 1972 the senior Mr. Farwell gave the Portia Bartlett Farwell Memorial Garden, directly behind the Fine Arts Center, in memory of his first wife.

Other gifts are beginning to come in and it is expected that the community will support the new acquisition through gifts and projects.

"With the growth of the Tryon area and the increase in activities of many kinds in the Center," Mr. Landrum said, "it has become increasingly obvious that we must expand. During the past year more than 300 performances, rehearsals, meetings and other events were scheduled in the Center. The new acquisition will ease the space problem inherent in this kind of demand."

The property consists of a six-room house with basement, occupying a lot 75 by 134 feet on the west side of the Center building.

While the sale has legally taken place, the Center will not take
