103 Pints Collected At Bloodmobile

109 volunteers came to the April 21st Red Cross Bloodmobile visit at the Parish House, Tryon at which 103 pints were collected. There were 11 first time donors. 34 pints were donated in memory of Dr. William R. Bosien.

No official weather report for Tuesday, but it was perfect. Wednesday was like a summer day instead of spring.

Due to the warm and dry weather, there will be no more outside burning in North Carolina until a good soaking rain comes along.

The Pennsylvania primaries found George Bush upsetting Ronald Reagan in the Republican presidential primary. Despite Bush's popular vote victory, Reagan claimed most of the delegates.

In a race that was too close to predict, it looked as if Senator Kennedy took a close decision over President Carter in the Democratic Primary. The two men looked as if they would split the delegate vote.

An article in Wednesday's Spartanburg Herald reported that the Landrum emergency radio system complies with Federal Communications Commission rules and does not violate federal privacy laws. Landrum began using the radio system several weeks ago. It dispatches the telephone line into the radio transmitter. When you call the police telephone number, you are
