

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

16 Pages Today

Vol. 53 — No. 63

TRYON, N. C. 28782

TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1980

Price 10c Per Copy

Weather Tues., April 22: high 84, low 50; Wed.: high 92, low 49; Thurs.: high 86, low 53; Friday: high 84, low 59; Saturday: high 75, low 58, rain .32; Sunday: high 76, low 58, rain .10. Monday morning was cooler and sunny.

The newspaper headlines still pertain to the unsuccessful attempt the American troops to free the hostages in Tehran.

The hostages in Bogota, Colombia were freed after 61-days as the guerrillas who took over the Dominican Republic Embassy were given political asylum in Cuba.

Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance, the only top advisory to President Carter who disagreed with the rescue operation in Iran is resigning according to reports circulating in Washington.

Tommy Caldwell, 30, a member of the Marshall Tucker Band who was seriously injured in an automobile accident Tuesday afternoon died Monday morning in Spartanburg General Hospital.

Polk Central High School is conducting the 10th annual school-wide doughnut sale for the benefit of the Searcy-West Scholarship Fund.

Tryon's Freddie Edwards saved par on the first playoff hole

Continued On Back Page

Man Killed In Wreck Here

Mark Leon Gilbert, 24, of McBee, S. C. was killed in a one-car accident on No. 9 Sunday at 5:30 p.m. near Polk Central High School.

Highway Patrolman David Satterfield said that Gilbert, driving south in a '75 Plymouth lost control of his car in a curve, went off the right side of the road and rolled over. The automobile traveled 470 feet out of control according to Patrolman Satterfield.

A passenger in the vehicle, James Roy Robbis, 21, of Spartanburg was taken to St. Luke's Hospital where he was treated for bruises and abrasions and released.

Patrolman Satterfield said that the vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed when it went out of control.

Reagan Breakfast

The 11th Congressional District Republican Party is sponsoring a Reagan For President Breakfast Saturday at 8:30 a.m. at the Great Smokies Hilton in Asheville. Gov. Ronald Reagan will be the speaker. For ticket information call 645-7195, 645-5345, 253-4432.

Girls Softball

Tuesday
Polk Central at Cherokee
Thursday
Rosman at Polk Central

Home Burned

An unoccupied new home was destroyed by fire Saturday morning on S. Bomar St. in Landrum. The fire was believed to have been started by lightning.

The new home was listed for sale by Landrum Real Estate.

The alarm was turned in about 6 a.m. and the Landrum Fire Department responded immediately but the fire was coming through the roof when the firemen arrived.

Seriously Injured

Monday's Spartanburg Herald reported that Robert Brown of Pickens, S. C. remained in serious condition Sunday night in Spartanburg General Hospital from injuries he received in an automobile accident Saturday afternoon on Hwy. 14 near Gowensville.

Brown suffered head injuries and was transferred from St. Luke's Hospital to Spartanburg General Hospital.

Johnny Robert Lindsey, 24, of Landrum was killed in the accident.

The Landrum Rescue Squad had two units at the accident, Inman Rescue Squad had a unit and the Landrum Fire Department sent a fire truck to the scene.

JV Baseball

Wednesday
East Rutherford at Polk Central
Friday
Cullowhee at Polk Central
(Double Header)

$370.36 For Cancer

Probably the most successful bake-sale in Tryon's history has brought a total of $370.36 to the American Cancer Society's Polk County Crusade. Bake-sale Chairman Carrie Lee Massey announced the results of the April 12 event, managed with the help of the following Crusaders, not to mention all who contributed baked goods: Katherine Fox, Ruth Simpson, Frances Woods, Louise Payton, and Kevin Massey.

Says Miss Massey, commenting on April 12th very wet weather: "It may have been raining all morning the day of our sale, but under that awning the sun was shining!". — Reporter

Pledges Sorority

DANVILLE, Ky. — Cathy Davis, a junior at Centre College of Kentucky, recently pledged the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth R. Davis of Rt. 2, Box 240 A, Mill Springs.

This is the first time in its 161-year history that Centre has had sororities on campus. Ninety-nine women pledged three sororities during a colonization process which ended in three days of meetings March 7-9. The sororities were invited to campus earlier this school year by a group of women students seeking the establishment of sororities.

Miss Davis is a 1977 graduate of Tryon High School. She is also a member of the softball team at Centre.