Bob Jones, III To Speak At Grace Baptist Ch.

Dr. Bob Jones, III, president of Bob Jones University in Greenville, S. C., will speak at Grace Baptist Church, Landrum, S. C., on May 4th at 7:00 p.m.

Dr. Jones is the third president of the "World's Most Unusual University", founded by his late grandfather in 1927. Under the leadership of the three Drs. Jones, it has grown from a small college with about 100 students to the largest independent fundamental Christian institution in the world. The university now has more than 5,700 students from throughout the nation and some 30 foreign countries and territories. One of America's youngest college chief executives, Dr. Jones became president of BJU in 1971.

Like his father and grandfather, but with his own distinctive style, Dr. Jones is a forthright, forceful preacher of the Word of God. More requests for meetings come in than the young minister is able to fill with his heavy and varied schedule of duties.

Dr. Jones is also the author of a booklet about the Jesus Movement entitled "Look Again at the Jesus People". According to university sources, "It is a new approach to a new problem of our day and turns the light of Scriptures into the aspects of the Jesus Movement which brand it
