No official report on the weather over the weekend, but it couldn't have been nicer.

Yugoslav President Josip Broz Tito, who had led his nation for 34 years, died Sunday at the age of 87.

Ronald Reagan and President Carter widened their leads Saturday with victories in the Texas presidential primary election. Today North Carolina and three others hold primaries.

The Roman Catholic Church has ordered U. S. Rep. Robert F. Drinan, an ordained Jesuit, and other priests around the world to get out of politics, and the liberal Democratic Congressman from Massachusetts "accepts the will of the pope." He was planning to seek election to his sixth term in Congress.

Seven women and two children were trampled to death and 72 other persons were injured Sunday in Kinshasa, Zaire in the crush to get into an open-air Mass celebrated by Pope John II.

Genuine Risk, won the Kentucky Derby Saturday. She was only the second filly to win the Derby in 106 years. Regret was the first in 1915.

The Tryon Kiwanis Club will have a roundtable meeting today

Health Services Wins Award

The Health Services Information Center, Inc., of Tryon is the recipient of the 1980 Aesculapian Award for organizations offered by the Western North Carolina Health Systems Agency for outstanding achievement in improving the health of western North Carolina residents.

The award was presented to Miss Bertha Blomfield-Brown, chairman, at the WNCCHA's annual meeting Friday, May 2, at the Great Smokies Hilton in Asheville.

The local organization was selected from nominees from all of western North Carolina. The award was made principally in recognition of the organization's publication and county-wide distribution of the book, "Area Health Services and Resources", and its sponsorship of the Polk County Health Fair. The 1979 issue of the resource book was edited and produced by Mrs. Malcolm Wiltshire; the past Health Fair was co-chaired by Mrs. James Hill and Reagan Ammons.

The H.S.I.C. was founded three years ago by Dr. Lionel L. Davis. In association with FISH, and through courtesy of the County Commissioners, it maintains an office in the Jervy-Palmer Building. Additionally it has sponsored "health" speakers, a short weekly program on WTYN, and a fall workshop on stress. Dr. Davis is currently heading a

Rescuers Search For Drowning Victim

The Rescue Squads of Polk County, Landrum and Inman searched Lake Adger Sunday from about 5 p.m. and continuing into Monday seeking the body of a possible drowning victim.

Monday morning Polk County Sheriff Boyce Carswell said that Bert Moore, 32, of Mill Spring was believed to have been drowned in the lake and that the search was continuing. Sheriff Carswell said that some fishermen had seen someone fall from the boat which later was identified as belonging to Bert Moore.

The Rescue squads are continuing the dragging operations, but no body had been recovered from the lake at press time.
