No official weather report for Wednesday, but the area had a good shower.

President Carter ordered an end Wednesday to an illegal seaborne influx of Cuban refugees but offered to move Cubans here by plane and large ships if President Castro permits screening of refugees on Cuban soil.

Women paratroopers took part in the 38th anniversary of the now-defunct Women's Auxiliary Army Corps at Ft. Bragg. The 152 women paratroopers leaped at 1-second intervals from C-130 transport planes. Fort Bragg spokesmen said there were no injuries or problems in the jump, although the parachutes of two women became entangled on the way down. Both landed safely.

Iranian President Abolhassan Bani-Sadra claimed Wednesday that 96 armed American agents, led by Iranian sympathizers, landed in Iran recently on a two-week sabotage and assassination mission.

Two hundred twenty-eight people who work at Southern Railway's Haynes Shop in Spartanburg will be laid off beginning next Wednesday.

Columbus Gets $60,000 Grant

WASHINGTON — The Town of Columbus has received a $60,000 industrial development grant from the federal Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), Congressman Lamar Gudger announced today.

The grant will be used to install about 4,300 linear feet of 12-inch sewer lines, 6,000 linear feet of six-inch main line and a lift station. The station will carry sewage from the existing Wheaton Industry plant to the town's sewer treatment facility.

House Damaged By Fire Here

The Tryon Volunteer Fire Department received a call Wednesday at 10:27 p.m. to the former Will McCall house in Lynn. The house, owned by David Preston, had recently been remodeled and was unoccupied.

Fire Chief Clarence Scoggins said that the fire started from an electrical wire in the kitchen and went up the wall into the attic. All the furnishings in the house were saved, but considerable fire, smoke and water damage was done to the house.

The Columbus firemen also answered the call.
