Gallery of Homes, the nation's oldest residential real estate franchising organization, is celebrating its 30th anniversary in May. In conjunction with this event, Town & Country Realty invites you to stop in and see Gallery of Homes' unique system of home buying and selling. Gallery offices, featuring warm living room-type settings and shadowbox displays of homes for sale, enable prospective buyers to shop for a new home in comfortable surroundings. Gallery's network of brokers, referral and relocation services give home buyers access to a wide variety of homes, both locally and throughout the country. Therefore, this system gives homes for sale exposure to more prospective buyers who live in other areas of the country as well as those already in the community.

Town & Country Realty, a member of Multiple Listing Service, has been affiliated with Gallery of Homes for three years and has been serving the Columbus-Tryon area for seven years. The company has an office in both towns.

During regular office hours on Monday, May 19, Town & Country Realty will provide information and refreshments in the Columbus office to anyone interested in seeing the local Gallery and discovering the Gallery of Homes difference.
