tennis for many years, both as a player and a proponent of the game, he has been Assistant Tennis Coach to Mrs. Annette Stafford at the Tryon High School for four years, assisting in both boys and girls tennis. He organizes all of the Tennis Tournaments; manages all travel needs of the team and accompanies the teams to out of town meets; he give private coaching to individual players and is always mindful of their abilities and growth.

The school and parents alike are aware of the positive influence Mr. Stirling has on their young people. It is the community's great fortune to have such an unusually dependable and capable volunteer. It is evident that his interests lie not only in developing tennis players but also in developing individuals — physically, mentally and socially.

The Second Wind Hall of Fame Award was presented to Mr. Douglas Stirling by William Martin at the Tryon High School All Sports Banquet, Friday, May 16, 1980 at school gymnasium. — Reporter
