

Tryon Horse Show May 23, 24 and 25

With only a week to go before Tryon's major annual event, the Tryon Horse Show sponsored by the Tryon Riding and Hunt Club, amateur and professional riders are putting the final touches on their horses before the competition begins on May 23. Shown above is Gerald Pack of Stony Knoll Farms, Columbus, N. C. aboard Baliwick, a past jumper champion of the Tryon Horse

Show and winner of numerous championships, campaigned by Gerald from the Florida circuit to the prestigious Devon Horse Show. The Tryon Horse Show, running from May 23 to May 25 has an added attraction this year. In each show program is a coupon entitling the bearer to two chances in a drawing on Sunday by Tryon Mayor, Ken Tucker.

First prize will be two pure silver ingots donated by George and Jean Masologites of Tryon. These ingots were struck at the Hamilton Mint and are commemorative Wonders of America ingots. The second prize in the drawing will be $25 cash.
