MEN'S GARDEN CLUB MEETS THURSDAY

The Tryon Men's Garden Club will meet May 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the NCNB Conference Room.

The speakers will be Ralph and Dorothy Benedict. Their subject will be the "Ancient Japanese Art of Bonsai" which is the miniturizing of trees and shrubs.

He is Professor Emeritus of the University of Wisconsin and came to Tryon from Madison.

They chose Tryon not only because it is a great place to live but also because it is a good environment for Bonsai, which has been their particular hobby for more than 11 years.

Members and guests are invited to hear the Benedicts and see the Bonsai exhibit which they will bring to the Conference Room. — Reporter
