

Charles Smith No. 1 Dealer

Charles G. Smith of Tryon was named the Number One Exxon Dealer of the Year in the Charlotte District. To be the Number One Dealer, Mr. Smith won first place Innage Dealer Contest; first place Sales Leader Contest; was appointed member of Dealer Advisory Council for North Carolina; was a Feature Article winner of Exxon Extra Magazine.

Mr. Smith has as his partner, John D. Waldrop, Certified Mechanic; James H. Miller, a 40 year veteran employee; and Tim Henderson, Tec Mechanic student. Mr. Smith said that he has the best and most dedicated customers around and that they helped make him the Number one Dealer of the Year with the World's largest company, Exxon.

June 7th Is Saluda Paint Day

Twenty two were present at the Saluda Community Club covered dish supper and meeting May 15, at the Saluda Fire Hall.

A program was presented by Mrs. Ruth Anderson, Vice-President of the Saluda Association of Artists and Craftsmen. She told the history of this new organization, its purpose, types of memberships and future plans. She called on several artists to tell of their work.

Darleta Dukes explained her pottery work and showed some of her products.

M. R. Haywood demonstrated with samples of her weaving, her sculpture and water color painting.

Kathy McCreery showed items made by eleven other Saluda artists.

At the business meeting it was voted to designate June 7, as Paint Day, when members will paint the Main Street benches and the picnic tables, benches, the pavillion and playground equipment at the Park.
