

Paul C. Smith

Rite of the Burial of the Dead including Communion and interment in the Tryon Cemetery began at 1 p.m. Monday, May 26, 1980 at the Church of the Holy Cross in Tryon for Reverend Paul Curran Smith of Tryon, who died Friday evening, May 23 at Pardee Memorial Hospital in Hendersonville. The service was conducted by the Rt. Rev. William G. Weinbauer, Bishop of the Diocese of Western North Carolina and the Rev. Walter D. Roberts, Rector of the Church of St. John in the Wilderness in Flat Rock, and the Rev. Ralph Bonacker, Priest in Charge of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Tryon.

Born in Peoria, Illinois, March 5, 1898, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Galusha Smith of Peoria, Mr. Smith visited Tryon prior to World War I when he met the late Dorothy Doubleday whom he married September 21, 1918. Living first in Illinois for a few years the Smiths returned to Tryon in 1925 when he became an associate of the late Andrew Law Blue Ridge Development Co. in the development of Hogback Mountain. He returned to Illinois in 1929 to join the Caterpillar Tractor Co. in Peoria as Asst. Advertising Manager and Regional Sales Representative for the southeast. He was a past President of the Peoria Advertising Club and a past President of the National American Federation of Advertising Clubs.

In 1951 he returned to Tryon as Caterpillar's Dist. Sales Manager until his retirement in 1960. A member of the congregation of Holy Cross Mr. Smith prior to his

NOTICE

Pursuant to the provision of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, notice is hereby given that the University of North Carolina is required to file with the FCC, no later than June 1, 1980, an application for renewal of the TV translator station W56AN serving Tryon, Columbus, and Saluda, which re-broadcasts WUNG-TV, Channel 58, Concord, N. C. on output Channel 56. The translator is operated with peak transmitter output power of 100 watts from the Tryon Peak Fire Tower.

University of North Carolina
General Administration
910 Raleigh Road
Chapel Hill, N. C. 27514

adv. 27c

ordination joined other Lay Readers in conducting services at the then prison camp in Columbus. With further study he was ordained January 19, 1959 by Bishop Henry to the Perpetual Diaconate of the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd in Tryon, where he remained as Deacon in Charge from 1959 to 1969.

His civic interests included the Drama Fortnightly (the forerunner of the Tryon Little Theater) and he also was a past Chairman of the Polk County Republican Executive Committee.

The Rev. Paul Smith is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Walter Knopp of Wycoff, N. J. and Mrs. Edward Dodge of Slick Rock, Columbus and Flat Rock, N. C., and one son, Arthur Law Smith of Park Forest, Ill., 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The family suggests that memorials be sent to the Church of the Good Shepherd in Tryon.

Retiring

Saturday's Spartanburg Herald had a picture of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Bradley (Virginia) who are retiring on June 2nd from Jesse W. Boyd Elementary School in Spartanburg. Virginia Bradley has been a part-time music teacher for 14 years. William Bradley will end a 25 year career as a full-time music teacher.

A Girl Scout Sustaining Membership Enrollment Kickoff Luncheon was held recently by Mrs. Marvin Page and Mrs. James Bond at Mrs. Page's home. They are co-chairpersons of this year's fund drive. Workers for the drive this year are Ms. Gay Lankford, Ms. Judy Kell, Hubert Crater, Ms. Lydia Clontz, Ms. Carol McCall, Ms. Sadie McKaig, Ms. Barbara Price, Bill Martin, Ms. Ruth Ann Arledge, Marvin Arledge, Ms. Terri Dorsam, Howard Green, Jim Lowry, Ms. Leta Scruggs, Gay Corpening, Ms. Diane Guffey and Bill Holzlohner.

Pisgah G. S. Council officials helping are Ms. Barbara Orr, Field Executive for Polk County and Ms. Jan Hager, Fund Raising and P. R. director for the council.

Read The Bulletin
For Local News

Annual Meeting For Green Creek Firemen

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Green Creek Volunteer Fire Department will be held Monday, June 2nd at 7:30 p.m. at the fire station.

FUNDS FOR GIRL SCOUTS

The Polk County Sustaining Membership Enrollment for Girl Scouts is now in progress. Polk County's share of support for Pisgah Girl Scout Council is $3500. If you haven't yet made your tax deductible contribution, please do so. Make your check to Pisgah Girl Scout Council and mail to Mrs. Marvin Page; Box 1306, Tryon, N. C. 28782.

Here is a partial list of contributors: Mrs. Robert C. Falconer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibbs, Mrs. Lawrence Bradley, W. K. Child, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Droba, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Peck, Jr., Col. M. R. Kammerer, Mrs. J. K. Muir, Mrs. Kenneth P. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Kirby, Dr. Ruth Graham, Mrs. Ben Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Raynard Christianson, Mrs. Lucile Cate, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Blight, Mr. and Mrs. William N. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bond.

Mrs. Wade

Mrs. Maggie Jackson Wade of Drayton, S. C. died Friday at 2:30 p.m. in Spartanburg General Hospital after a long illness.

A native of Polk County, she was a daughter of the late John Landrum and Arminta Dimsdale Jackson. She was a Baptist.

Surviving: daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Moneyham of the home, Mrs. Shirley Andrews of Lafayette, Tenn.; brothers, John Earl Wade of the home, Bill Jackson of Mill Spring; 10 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren.

M. W. Bobo Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

Wreck

A one-car accident took place Sunday afternoon on Hwy. 108 opposite McFarland's Funeral Chapel. No details were available at press time.

Attention

The office of Richard G. Hopkins will be closed from Thursday noon until Monday morning, 5-29-80 — 5-31-80 for attendance at a clinical allergy meeting in Charleston.

Dogwood Trail Gillette Woods Area

This one year old all electric home has 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, country kitchen with native stone fireplace, and ponderosa pine cabinets, living room with 100 yr. old natural exposed beams and parquet floor, full basement with fireplace, large deck, and attached 2-car carport. Exterior is native stone and cedar. Pella windows. Quality built.

Shown by appointment. $89,900.

Dean Butler Realty, Inc.

116 N. Trade St., Tryon, N. C. 28782