No official weather report for Thursday, but it was a little on the warm side.

The U. S. House rejected a $613.3 billion, defense-minded 1981 balanced budget Thursday night but then voted to support the high military spending level opposed by President Carter and House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr.

Vernon E. Jordan, Jr., president of the National Urban League, was seriously wounded by a sniper armed with a rifle early Thursday as he returned to his motel about 2 a.m. in Fort Wayne, Ind.

In a historic movie, the Carter Administration Thursday cleared the way for the first sales of military-related equipment and technology to the communist government of China.

Local 1 percent Sales and Use Tax Collections for April were $22,956.46.

Western North Carolina Tomorrow has elected Richard B. Wunne, chairman. He is president and publisher of the Asheville Citizen-Times. Paul Culberson was named vice-chairman of the Natural Resources Committee and Mrs. Jane
