New Chef At Pacolet River Plantation

The Pacolet River Plantation on Hwy. 176 in Pacolet Valley has opened again after extensive renovation. The new chef is Ralph Capps, a native of Hendersonville. Mr. Capps was trained at Cornell University and had 11 years active duty in the Army in Food Service. He is a Major in the Army Reserves.

Mr. Capps was a dietitian at Brooks General Hospital, an Executive Chef in the Hilton Hotel, Inc.; was a chef in the Heather Hills Country Club in Indianapolis, Indiana; Highland Falls Country Club and the Asheville Downtown City Club.

Mrs. Capps (Shirley) is also a native of Hendersonville. She comes to the Pacolet River Plantation from the Etowah Country Club.

Mr. Capps said that they will feature gourmet meals with special seasonal items, plus homemade soups and desserts. He said that they would be glad to help plan your parties, banquets and other special occasions. An added attraction is a screened-in porch overlooking the Pacolet River.

CED TRAINEE

Shelton Rhodes of Deep Run, N. C. (in Lenoir County) has been assigned to the Polk County ASCS Office as part of his training to become a County Executive Director. He will be training in all phases of ASCS work.

Retires

Mrs. Frances J. Pittman

Mrs. Frances J. Pittman who is retiring from teaching this year after 33 years in the classroom, was honored Tuesday at Mill Spring School with a special luncheon in her honor. She was presented a gold locket by the Mill Spring faculty and staff and her 30 year pin. Supt. David A. Cromer said that in her 33 years of teaching in Polk County she had missed five days of school and one PTA meeting.

The former Frances Jackson, she was reared in the Sunny View Community. She is a graduate of Sunny View High School, and received her B.A. and M.A. degrees from Appalachian State University. She taught one year at Sunny View and 32 at the Mill Spring School. The third grade teacher was honored Tuesday by the children of the school who planted a red dogwood in recognition of her 32 years at the
