No official weather report for Tuesday, but it was a delightful day. Wednesday morning was nice, but not as cool as Tuesday and Monday. The gardens need rain, but the weatherman doesn't predict it before next week.

The U. S. House of Representatives censured Rep. Charles H. Wilson making the California Democrat only the third member of Congress to be so chastized this century. He was punished for violating House rules by converting campaign funds to his own use and for accepting money from a man with a direct interest in legislation before Congress.

President Carter said Tuesday that former Attorney General Ramsey Clark so damaged the nation's foreign policy by traveling to Iran, that "my inclination is within the bounds of the law," to order him prosecuted.

An Oklahoma pastor considered a rigorous conservative about the Bible, the Rev. Bailey E. Smith, on Tuesday was elected president of the Southern Baptist Convention in St. Louis.

Richard Pryor, comedian and writer, was in critical condition Tuesday, badly burned over the upper half of his body. Police

Car Downs Fence At Tryon Depot

A car reportedly driven by Ms. Lillian Stafford of Mill Spring, went off the parking lot area at the Tryon Depot, through the rail fence, hit the railroad tracks and attempted to come back out through another section of the fence. The car was removed from the tracks by Jackson's Wrecker Service.

Tryon Policeman Raphael Foy investigated the accident and charged Ms. Stafford with destruction of Town Property; Driving Under the Influence; Driving While License Revoked; No Insurance; Careless and Reckless Driving. She was taken to the Polk County Jail in Columbus where she is being held in lieu of an $800 bond.
