No official weather report for Wednesday, but it was perfect for outside activities. Thursday morning was more of the same. The area needs a good rain, but none is forecast until next week.

Japanese Prime Minister Masayoshi Ohira died early Thursday morning of a heart attack. He was 70.

The July-August 1980 issue of "Needlecraft for Today" has items you can make money on at Bazaars. Many of the projects were created by talented needleworker Midge Edwards of Columbus and are designed to be produced for a very small amount of money.

Marilynn King of The Book Shelf sent us a clipping from the Chicago Tribune on Nina Simone. Miss Simone is now in Philadelphia after being in Europe the last couple of years.

The Biltmore House has become "The Morley Mansion" as the Tim Conway-Don Knotts comedy-suspense feature, "The Private Eyes" is being filmed there. Most of the filming is being done in the late afternoons and evenings. This is the second major film production for Biltmore House since "Being There" starring Peter Sellers

Two Teachers Retire At Stearns School

Two teachers have announced their retirement after this year at Stearns School and both have the last name of Smith. Mrs. Paul T. Smith (Colena) is retiring after 30 years and Mrs. Sidney Smith (Helen) is retiring after 34 years.

Mrs. Colena Smith is a native of Henderson County. She graduated from Mills River High School and Western Carolina Teachers College with a B. S. degree. She taught at Robbinsville for 3 years, at Mill Spring for 1 year, at Tryon for 1 year and has been at Stearns School for the past 25 years.

She has taught the fourth grade most of these years and when she wasn't teaching the fourth grade, she was teaching the 5th grade.

She and her husband, Paul, have two children, Thomas E. Smith of Charlotte and Miss Rita Smith of Columbia, S. C. Mrs. Smith says that she is planning to sew for her two grandchildren. She is going to spend more time in her garden and do some of the things that she has been wanting to do, but hasn't had time for. She is a member of the Columbus Baptist Church.

Mrs. Helen T. Smith is a graduate of Landrum High School and Asheville Teachers College with a B. S. degree. She taught four years at Mill Spring, 1 year at Marion and 2 years at Landrum before coming to Stearns. She has the unique distinction of having her two

Landrum Council

The Landrum City Council met Tuesday night at the City Hall. Dan Young, Recreational Director, gave a report of the recreational activities and presented plans for the sports complex to be constructed at the O. P. Earle School.

An Affirmative Action Plan for the Community Development Block Grant Program was presented to the council for study.

Council approved a request for a water bill adjustment for Cindy Nodine.

Council approved a purchase of a new engine for one of the police cars.

Mayor informed the council that a Sex Discrimination Complaint has been filed against the town by Mrs. Judy Greenway Collins, who claims she was discriminated against when the town hired its last policeman.

A resolution was passed in honor of the late Pickney C. Lancaster, who served as fire chief in Landrum for a number of years. He was inducted into the S. C. Firemen's Hall of Fame in May.

Tim Cogdell was named superintendent of the Landrum water and waste water treatment plants.
