Weather Monday: high 80, low 57; Tuesday: high 84, low 53; Wednesday: high 84, low 53; Thursday: high 84, low 56. Friday morning was more of the same.

Actor Milburn Stone, who starred as Doc Adams in the TV series "Gunsmoke" for many years, died Thursday. He was 75.

The U. S. Senate voted Thursday to require an estimated 4 million young men to sign their names in the first peacetime draft registration program since 1975. The House had already passed the measure.

Congress Thursday finally approved a $613.6 billion 1981 budget and projects a $200 million surplus. (Most of us doubt this will happen).

The Polk County Historical Association Museum at the Depot in Tryon is open on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 10 to 12 noon.

Tonight at 7 the City Council of Saluda will hold a public hearing at the City Hall on the proposed budget.

The Tryon Town Council will hold a budget workshop session at 7 tonight in the Town Hall and again on Wednesday at 4.

The Polk County Commissioners meet at 7 tonight at the Green Creek Celebration Saturday, June 21

The Green Creek Fire Department celebration, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary will get underway Saturday at 12 noon. There will be a dunking machine with guys and gals from all over the county volunteering to be "dunkees." There will be Gospel, folk, country, and blue grass music.

That evening the crowning of the "Little Miss" and "Miss" Green Creek Fire Department will take place. One of the Green Creek Firemen will be presented the Fireman of the Year Award.

Capping off the evening will be the first performance of the Green Creek Fire Department Cloggers along with square dancing and clogging for all. Music will be provided by Barry Jackson and the Country Strangers. The public should bring their lawn chairs and spend the day. — Reporter
