Sunday will be Homecoming at Morgan Chapel Baptist Church. Following the 11 a.m. worship service there will be dinner and then singing. The Golden Chords of Woodruff, S. C. will be the special singers. The Rev. Ralph Hipp is the pastor and T. J. Huskey is the music director. All are invited.

Cecil Turner Shoots Hole-In-One

Tryon Country Club Professional Cecil Turner shot his 4th hole-in-one last Wednesday afternoon when he hit an 8-iron on the fly into the par 3, 155-yard ninth hole. He was playing with his assistant, Kenny Morgan, and had a 66 on the round. Mr. Turner had made two holes-in-one previously on the 210 14th hole and one on the ninth.

This was the second hole-in-one made at the Tryon Country Club this year.

To Speak Here

Ralph C. Charbeneau of Williamsburg, Virginia, will be the speaker Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the Fine Arts Center. His lecture is entitled, "The Healing Power of God in Business." The lecture is sponsored by the Christian Science church in Tryon.

Mr. Charbeneau is a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship. He was formerly president of a national corporation engaged in research and education. His business responsibilities involved travel to 40 countries. He has served as a department manager at the Christian Science Center, Boston and he is an active Christian Science practitioner. He has authored articles for periodicals of the Christian Science Publishing Society and has served as announcer for radio programs of The Mother Church.

Mr. Charbeneau served as pilot in the Royal Canadian Air Force and U. S. Marines.

The public is invited to hear this message of healing. Child care will be provided.
