Weather Tuesday: high 79, low 64, rain at 7 a.m. Wednesday was 4.40 inches, making a total of 5.56 inches — and it was still raining.

President Carter said Tuesday the United States would cooperate in some sort of "transitional arrangement" for governing Afghanistan if the Soviet Union agrees to withdraw its troops from that southwest Asian nation.

The Chrysler Corp. received $500 million in government-guaranteed loans Tuesday in a struggle for survival.

U. S. Rep. John Jenrette of South Carolina appeared to win his bid for re-nomination in Tuesday's Democratic primary runoff. He had been campaigning under the weight of a federal indictment, resulting from the FBI Abseam investigation.

The "new" disease of dogs, Canine Parvovirus, has been making the news in larger papers. Jerry L. Dorsam, DVM discussed the disease in an article in Monday's Bulletin. This column will be carried each week in the Bulletin.

The new fall schedule at Tryon High School has been completed. Students may come in the next two weeks (June 30 — July 11)

New Church

Sunday, June 22nd was the beginning of the Tri-City Missionary Church. The church is non-denominational and Rev. Jerry D. Boyd is the pastor. The church's name comes from the three cities — Tryon, Landrum and Columbus — and is presently meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miller in Landrum.

Mr. Boyd said that the ministries already begun include morning devotions on radio, rest home tape and visitation ministry and Cottage Prayer meetings every Friday at 7:30 in homes of sick and shut-in. On Sundays the church has Bible school at 10, worship service at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. On Wed. there is prayer meeting at 7:30 p.m. and on Friday, Cottage prayer meetings at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Boyd, 34, is married and has three children, Donna, age 11, Yvonne, age 7 and Amy, age 6. They sing together in the services. Mr. Boyd has been in the ministry for 7 years, starting out in evangelism, then serving as assistant pastor and now as pastor. He has been in radio work several years, starting with the late Dr. Oliver B. Greene of the Gospel Hour in Greenville, S. C.
