Mrs. Pearlina Bell of Tryon has received some ash from Mt. St. Helen in Washington. It was sent to her by her daughter, Mrs. Stephanie Lewis of Portland, Oregon. The ash is interesting to examine, but we can imagine the problem it has created in the Mt. St. Helen area.

Pullens Buy Boy Scout Camp

James B. Chase Pullen of Millwaukee, Wisconsin and Paul Pike Pullen, III of Pompano Beach, Fla. have bought the Shiele Boy Scout Camp on Lake Lanier from the Piedmont Boy Scout Council. The property consists of 194 acres, 3,330 feet frontage on the lake and 5 year-around buildings as well as a number of other buildings.

The camp has been in operation since about 1926 and has been recognized as one of the finest Boy Scout Camps in the nation. The number of boys has outgrown the facilities and a new reservation will be in operation in Rutherford County next year for the scouts in the Piedmont Council. The Scouts will continue to use the property this summer.

At the annual picnic and meeting of the Lake Lanier Association last Saturday, Mr. Pullen assured the Association that the property would be improved and would enhance the properties on and around the lake.

James and Paul Pullen are the sons of Mrs. Veda C. Pullen of Tryon.
