

11 NOV 80

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 2, BOX 11
COLUMBUS, N.C.

28722

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Phone 859-9151

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

8 Pages Today

Vol. 53 — No. 110

TRYON, N. C. 28782

MONDAY, JULY 7, 1980

Price 10c Per Copy

No official weather report for Wednesday, but it was warm. Early Thursday morning there was a small shower in the Tryon area.

The U. S. Supreme Court, ruled Wednesday that the public and press have a constitutional right to attend criminal trials even when defendants want to exclude them. The court said judges may conduct trials, or portions of trials, in secret only as a last resort to ensure fairness to a defendant.

The Supreme Court also upheld sweeping power for Congress to use racial quotas to remedy discrimination by a 6-3 vote.

By a 5-4 decision the court ruled the government may not impose more stringent standards for exposure to cancer-causing benzene until it proves current standards are unsafe. The court's decision could affect other OSHA standards.

The Landrum Area Park and Recreation Department is offering an advanced life saving course, followed by Water Safety Instruction Course. The course will begin July 17. Anyone interested should contact Dani Janulis at the Brookwood Park Pool, 457-4374 for further information.

Continued On Back Page

Move Here

Dr. and Mrs. Mark Hicklin have moved to Tryon from Winston-Salem and are making their home on Caroline Drive. Both Dr. and Mrs. Hicklin are natives of Spartanburg.

Dr. Hicklin received his B.S. degree from Clemson University and his M.D. degree from the Bowman Gray School of Medicine from Wake Forest University. He did his internship at Georgia Baptist Medical Center in Atlanta and his residency in Family Medicine at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Bowman Gray School of Medicine in Winston-Salem. He will begin his practice in mid July under the name of Foothills Family Medicine at 100 Jervey Road in Tryon (former TMA building). Dr. Hicklin will be joined by Dr. Sherrill Braswell in February. Dr. Braswell is completing his training at Bowman Gray.

Mrs. Hicklin (Janet) received her B.A. degree from Clemson University and her Masters in Education from the University of South Carolina. She is a former elementary school teacher and is expecting their first child. Her interests include cross-stitch, sewing, arts and crafts.

Dr. Hicklin enjoys hunting, fishing and gardening.

Master Sgt. Paul Mayo has arrived in Tryon from Hahn Air Force Base, Germany for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Babs Cavendish.

Basketball Clinic

The Polk County Community Schools Basketball Clinic will continue every Tuesday and Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Polk Central High School. Any player wishing to improve his (or her) skills is invited. The instructors are Stokes Sheehan and Kevin Pope.

Selected For Governor's School

Two rising seniors at Tryon High School are attending Governor's School this summer. Selected for their academic achievements were Melanie Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Butler and Lee Corbett, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Corbett.

Melanie Butler

Melanie is attending the Governor's School at Laurinburg and will study math. In addition to her studies, Melanie will be a

Continued On Back Page

$77,650 Grant

RALEIGH — Governor Jim Hunt announced today that he is making a grant of $77,650 available to provide wastewater service to the Polk County Industrial Park located near the Town of Columbus.

In announcing the grant, Governor Hunt commented, "I am proud to be able to help bring in jobs for the good folks of Polk County. This project provides a basic service that will aid in the economic development of Polk County for years to come."

The Appalachian Regional Commission grant will provide funds to construct a sewer line that will initially serve Wheaton Industries, which is expected to employ 50 to 75 people.

This year the ARC will provide over eight million dollars of support to 29 western North Carolina counties to improve economic growth and development.

Football Jamboree In Landrum

The Landrum Boosters Club will sponsor the first football jamboree to be held in Landrum on August 29th. Four teams will participate. In addition to Landrum, participating teams will be Chapman, Jonesville and Christ Church.

The jamboree counts as a scrimmage, but gets the teams used to a game situation a week prior to the season.