House Burns

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Elliott of the Lebanon section of Rt. 1, Mill Spring was destroyed by fire last Friday about 8 p.m. No one was at home at the time of the fire. The Elliotts were able to save some of their furniture and clothing.

The Mill Spring Fire Department and the Sunny View Fire Department answered the alarm.

School Board Hires Two Teachers

The Polk County School Board met Monday night in the courthouse annex. The Board approved Daniel Abraham of Spartanburg as teacher of math, business and physical education at Polk Central and approved the appointment of George Jolley of Campobello to teach industrial arts at Polk Central.

In other matters Supt. L. D. Coble shared the principals and staff meetings to date with the board. Supt. Coble reported that the Board's liability insurance had been paid through May of 1982. He updated the bid information on the new classrooms at Polk Central and the Board approved a $1187 cement concrete block wall partition to divide the classrooms.

The Board denied a request for a student to transfer from the Polk County School system to the Henderson County system.

Mrs. Joan Nash gave a report on the Community Schools

Tryon Reaffirms No Sunday Beer Sales

The Tryon Town Council met Monday at the Town Hall.

There were six persons present representing four businesses with interest in the Sunday ABC sales. After a lengthy discussion the Board of Commissioners upheld their decision to prohibit Sunday ABC sales of beer and wine as in the best interest of the Town of Tryon and its citizens.

There are 13 businesses in Tryon with ABC permits and four were present. Sunday beer and wine sales for on premises consumption would be permitted in accordance with the N. C. ABC laws for businesses with ABC permits qualifying as restaurants or social establishments. Beer for off premises consumption for Tryon is prohibited.

The Town approved water adjustments due to broken lines and other problems for Isabell Counts, J. V. Whiteside, and Ricky Howard.

Board appointed Daniel and Brown, CPA as the Town Auditor for FY 1980-81.

Board set Wed., July 16 at 7 p.m. for a special meeting in Executive Session for further consideration of land acquisition.

Board recognized the business of the downtown area as submitted by the Central Business District Committee for the facade improvements to buildings and grounds: Tryon Feder-

Attending Summer Program

Tyrone
Cantrell

Tyrone Cantrell will be returning home July 18 after attending the Mars Hill College Summer Scholastics and Arts Program for two weeks. This is a residential program for gifted and talented elementary and secondary school students with an academic curriculum of integrated course work in various disciplines taught by Mars Hill College Faculty. The students receive academic instruction balanced with individual-small group recreation and instruction in media and photography.

This fall Tyrone will be a 6th grade student at the Green Creek Elementary School. He is an active member of Green Creek First Baptist Church and sings in the Junior Choir. He is also a member of the newly organized Green Creek Cloggers.

Tyrone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Cantrell and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cantrell and Mr. and Mrs. Olin A. Brown, all of the Green Creek Community.

Peter Gretener of Hergiswil, Lucerne, Switzerland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Shaw Pettigrew in Tryon.
