WEDNESDAY, JULY 30, 1980

Price 10c Per Cop.

No official weather report for Monday, but it was a fine July day. Tuesday was more of the same with a delightful cool breeze in the morning.

Former U. S. President Richard Nixon attended the former Shah of Iran's funeral Tuesday.

Four Death Row convicts, disguised as guards, sawed and bluffed their way out of Georgias maximum security prison Monday at Reidsville, Ga. Prison officials first learned of the escape from a reporter who got a telephoned "news tip" from one of the four fugitives.

The Rutherfordton Little League team defeated Forest City in extra innings Monday afternoon at Harmon Field in this area championship. They were to have played Cherryville Tuesday afternoon for the District Championship with the winner going to the State Semi-Finals.

Several people have indicated that they would like to send a contribution to the Boy Scout Troop 222 (handicapped boys) who are earning money for a trip to Disney World. The address is Boy Scout Troop 222, Box 240843, Charlotte, N. C. 28224.

Here From Mexico

Miss Rosita Molina

Rosita Molina from Oaxaca, Mexico has arrived and is living with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meroney of Columbus, N. C. She has three sisters, Flor, age 18; Patricia, age 14; Adriana, age 7; and one brother Arturo, age 15.

Rosita will be a senior this fall at Polk Central High School. Her extended educational plans are to study medicine. She likes to play tennis, read, jog and swim and she had a Cub Scout troop in her home town of Mexico.

Rosita states the reason she applied for an AFS student is "I would like to learn a new language, have an opportunity to meet more people, learn customs of other countries and to be able to show to everybody the traditions and customs of Mexico."

Albert Booker has returned to Fort Riley, Kansas after spending his furlough with his family in Tryon.
