THURSDAY'S FILM

Thursday night's film at The Upstairs will be "The Man Who Lies", a comedy drama about a man who arrives in an unidentified village and tries to take the place of a man who has been missing from the home of three women. The film is written and directed by Alain Robbe-Grillet, a contemporary French writer whose novels usually dispense with traditional psychology and present man with an impenetrable reality.

The public is invited. The Upstairs is located at 117 South Trade St. in Tryon.

Freak Accident; Lady Shot

Mrs. James Fox (Thelma) of Fairview Road, Tryon was in bed watching TV at 12:40 a.m. Tuesday when she was struck in the left buttock by a bullet. The house is two floors where the bedroom is located. The bullet went threw a glass window before it struck Mrs. Fox.

Tryon Police Chief Jerry Ross said that the bullet was apparently a stray shot from somewhere else that hit Mrs. Fox. He said that there had been reports of some shots in the Markham Road area. He stated that with all the trees in the area it seemed almost impossible for a bullet to have missed them before hitting Mrs. Fox.

Mrs. Fox was taken to St. Luke's Hospital where she was treated.

The Tryon Police and the SBI are continuing their investigation into the shooting.
