Mrs. J. W. Taylor Painfully Injured

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor of Lake Lanier were getting ready to pick some okra Wednesday morning when their pick-up truck rolled forward and hit Mrs. Taylor and knocked her to the ground and rolled over her.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wray have a small garden plot at the Community Garden at Tryon High School and had asked Mr. and Mrs. Taylor to cut the okra while they were gone. The Taylors had pulled off the road and were parked on a small incline near the school and were walking to the Community Garden Spot. Mrs. Taylor walked in front of the pick-up truck and as she did, the truck began to roll and knocked her to the ground and rolled on her. Mr. Taylor backed the truck off to free her and then went to the school for help and to get someone to call the ambulance. She was taken to St. Luke's Hospital where is a patient.

Mrs. Taylor has a broken bone in her hand, a number of cracked ribs, and is painfully sore with bruises, cuts and scratches. Her son, Harold Taylor, reported that she was getting alone as well as could be expected but that she was extremely sore.
