Price 10c Per Cop!

No official weather report for Monday, but it was another sunny and hot day. Early Tuesday morning there was a delightful cool breeze.

President Carter was guaranteed renomination Monday night in a quick and dramatic finish to Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's challenge as the Democratic convention voted to rule binding delegates on the first ballot to the candidate they were chosen to back.

Polk County Superior Court is being held this week at the courthouse in Columbus.

Mrs. Herman Walker and children, Miss Joyce Walker, age 16 and Brian, age 11, of Northridge, California are visiting Mr. Walker's mother, Mrs. Nannie Walker of Mill Spring. Mr. Walker will join them this weekend. Mrs. Walker attended her high school class reunion at Mt. Clemens, Michigan. Last year they returned for Mr. Walker's Mill Spring High School Class Reunion.

Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. is the reception for the new teachers and Polk County Supt. Larry Coble at the Polk County Library.

The Tryon Country Club course will be closed all day Thursday in

BIG TOMATOES

Eugene Smith of Butter Street, Lake Lanier, was exhibiting some big tomatoes Monday morning in the Bulletin Office. The largest of the tomatoes weighed 2 lbs. 11 ozs. and he was on his way to White Oak Terrace to get his official taster, Charles Otis Green, to try them.

Mr. Smith said the tomatoes were Beef Masters and were grown from seed.

4-H Dairy Show Winners

Twenty Polk County 4-H'ers participated in the WNC Jr. Dairy Show, winning many ribbons for themselves and recognition for Polk County 4-H.

Other placings in various Jersey classes were: Kerri Wolfe: blue ribbon, 4th place; Katie Chesnutt, blue ribbon, first place; and Thomas White, blue ribbon, second place.

By far, the largest classes of the day were in the Holstein breed. ## No Insurance Fees For Tryon Students

The Tryon Board of Education met on 11 August, 1980 after a summer break. Superintendent Vernon Dusenbury announced that the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges gave the Tryon schools the all clear status, meaning accreditation for the coming year, which is the tenth year.

The revised bid on the heating system of $30,480 was accepted: the new system is expected to be in before cold weather.

B. C. Corbett reported on school insurance and recommended the Sentry Life Insurance Company, which for $2500 will cover all accidents to and from school, all athletic and other activities, hospitalization, etc. for grades K-12, this was accepted.

Biltmore Dairy was the only one to submit a bid on milk for the coming year, and a firm bid of 13c per carton was voted.

A budget resolution using local monies only was approved. (State money will come later.)

The school organization is basically the same as last year with expansion of vocation education in the high school and in the middle school the schedule changed into blocks of time with teachers changing rooms in the middle of the blocks instead of the children.

In the executive session the following personnel changes were approved: Resignations: Terry McEntire, 3rd grade;
