Weather Monday: high 94, low 68; Tuesday: high 88, low 70; Wednesday: high 90, low 64. The afternoons are hot, but the mornings have been nice.

The Democrats renominated President Carter Wednesday night in New York. The convention will be over today, so many people will be able to go back to their favorite TV programs. Many have suggested that one network be left open each night for regular programming when the Republican and Democratic national conventions are being held.

The American Cancer Society Tennis Tournament is Saturday and Sunday at Red Fox Country Club. It is open to all double contestants. Call Randy Walker at 894-3429 to enter.

Saturday at 7 p.m. is the Miss Columbus and the Little Miss Columbus Pageant at the Stearns School Auditorium.

For those who missed "Bye, Bye Birdie" or for those who want to see it again, there will be a soundtrack-slide presentation Monday at 7 p.m. at the Fine Arts Center. There is no reserved seating and doors will open at 6:30 p.m. There is no admission, but donations will be gratefully

English Choir In Concert Sunday

The 46 voice men and boys' choir of St. James' Church, Leicester, England, will give a concert in the Church of the Holy Cross, Tryon, Sun., Aug. 17th at Evensong beginning at 5:00 p.m.

The Choir, considered to be one of England's finest Parish Choirs, is touring the Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina. They are spending one month at the invitation of St. James' Church, Hendersonville.

The Director of Music, Timothy Lees, their Organist, Derek Barnes, and the Vicar, the Reverend Derek Hole will take part in the concert and service. The public is invited.

Tools Stolen

Wednesday a thief or thieves entered the utility room of Hugh Flynn's at Stott's Corner, Rt. 1, Landrum, and took tools estimated at $250 value. The room was unlocked and the thieves just walked in and helped themselves. Taken were assorted wrenches, drills, all kinds of tools and a tackle box. Polk County Deputies Charles Smith and Billy Stepp are investigating the theft.

A GRADUATE

Michael Robert Arledge was among the graduates Sunday at Appalachian State University at Boone. He majored in Business Administration and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Arledge of Tryon.

Polk School Board Has Busy Meeting

The Polk County School Board met Tuesday night in the Agriculture Extension Conference Room in the Courtroom annex.

The School Board hired the following personnel: Rebecca Johnson, Special Education at Mill Spring; Margaret Craig, Title I Reading; Arrovia Burton, Elementary Music; Cheryl Smith, Industrial Arts at Polk County; Connie Walker, Special Education Aide at Mill Spring.

Board voted to suspend the Youth Opportunity Specialist Program pending a program evaluation by the Superintendent.

Board voted to allow the Superintendent to hire clerical assistants on an hourly basis at the Supt.'s discretion. The Board authorized the continued employment for classified office personnel for terms of Supt. Coble's contract or at his discretion.

The Board approved the breakfast prices at 25c for students and 35c for adults; the elementary lunches for children are 60c and for adults $1; Polk Central lunches are 75c for students and $1 for adults. (This is the same schedule as last year.)

The Board directed Supt. Coble to investigate the use of activity buses by non-school groups.

The Board approved guidelines for payment for supplements to
