FISH Needs Volunteers

FISH, an organization of volunteers from the Tryon-Columbus-Landrum area dedicated to help people in need, needs more volunteers to man the office phone.

Communication is by phone by a person in need to the FISH office (859-6500) in the Meeting Place in Tryon. Volunteers man the phone in the office Monday through Friday from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon, after which the calls are transferred automatically to Brunella Massey in her home. It is for this function that more volunteers are required because attrition has reduced our help to a minimum.

The office maintains a card file of volunteers who are willing to furnish transportation, make calls to shut-ins, read to the blind, or offer other help that the situation calls for.

Volunteers responding to this appeal may call the FISH office (859-6500) to register their service, or call Liz Graeme, our Volunteer Scheduler at 894-8383, Walter Keffer at 894-3405, or George Blaine at 859-6259.

NO DINNER

According to an ad in the paper there will be NO dinner on Aug. 21st at the St. Luke's CME Church.

Todd Alewine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Alewine, Jr. of Tryon has entered Appalachian State University for his sophomore year.
