Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bollinger have purchased a home on Melrose Avenue Extension, Tryon, from Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Bain.

The Bollingers have moved here from Hillsboro, Texas.

Mrs. Bollinger, the former Nancy Randall, daughter of Mrs. Allen Randall, and the late Mr. Randall, was born and reared in Tryon. she will be teaching in the Tryon Elementary School System. Mr. Bollinger will continue his activities in Commercial Real Estate covering the southeastern section of the United States.

They have two children: Sarah, age 15, who will enter the 10th grade in Tryon High School and David, age 11, who will enter the 6th grade in Tryon Elementary.

Mrs. Bollinger is a sister of Mrs. Charles Cowan.

Mary A. Wall and Bob Mueller of Dean Butler Realty, Inc. handled the transaction.

"Smallest School" Begins 23rd Year

The Seventh-day Adventist Elementary School, located near Columbus on Fox Mountain Road, began its twenty-third year Monday, with an enrollment of sixteen. Principal Ed Stokeley will be teaching the upper grades, and his wife Lyn the lower grades.

During the past two summers, the school interior has been remodeled and redecorated, and the grounds have recently received a facelifting. The Stokeleys' look forward to a good school year.

Ron Herman of Columbus is the school board chairman.
