Weather Thursday high 92, low 69, rain at 7 a.m. Friday was 828. We think everyone was delighted with the ram early Friday morning.

Greer City Council hired former Spartanburg County Treasurer Oren L. Brady Thursday night to serve in a temporary comptroller's position. Brady will evaluate the city's needs in the area of financial operations and will help train someone to fill the position permanently.

A federal judge overruled the N. C. Board of Elections Thursday and ordered that independent presidential candidate John B. Anderson be given a place on the state General-election ballot.

Another federal judge rejected Thursday a request by Republican Senate candidate John East for an injunction aimed at forcing the state Board of Elections to alter its placement of races on the general election ballot.

There Is Still Time

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the Parish Hall in the Episcopal Church until 5:30 this afternoon to accept blood donations from area residents who want to participate in this life saving program. The process is easy and quick and the satisfaction of knowing you have helped someone in desperate need is long-lasting. Be a good Samaritan, the Red Cross suggests, and give blood today.

Fall Softball

There will be a Fall Softball League at Harmon Field with play beginning tonight. The teams will play Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at 7, 8, and 9 o'clock. Tonight's schedule is as follows: 7—L&H vs Southwestern Kusan; 8 — Coopers vs Ravens; 9 — Reids Truck Stop vs Cooleys.

Graduates

Airman First Class, Kenneth R. Horne, son of Joyce A. Metcalf or Route 3, Campobello, S. C., has graduated from the U. S. Air Force security police specialist course at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

Graduates of the course studied security and law enforcement and earned credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community Colleges of the Air Force.

Airman Kenneth will now serve at Bolling Air Force Base, Washington.

GREETINGS FROM BRAZIL:

Hello everyone! I thought that I would write to let everyone know that I am alive and doing very well in Brazil, South America!

I left Polk County on June 14th and flew to Miami, Florida for two days of AFS Orientation. I left Miami International Airport on June 16th. The flight to Brazil was somewhat long, but fun, since there were approximately 150 AFS'ers on board! While in flight, we flew over Jamaica, Columbia and the Andes Mountains — which were covered with snow!! The plane landed in Paraguay, where we left off approximately 35 Paraguay AFS students. Then onward to Brazil. We landed in Brazil around midnight in the Big and Beautiful city of Rio De Janeiro.

After we got off the plane and claimed our baggage, we boarded buses for a boarding school in Rio! Early June 17th, 5 other AFS'ers and I boarded a bus for Campos, Brazil (which is about 5-hours North of Rio De Janeiro). When I arrived in Campos, my Brazilian family was waiting for me.

Now that I have lived here almost two-months, I consider Campos my home! The people here are so very warm and friendly. I have many close friends whom I love very much! I enjoy many of their customs; one for instance, the kissing of each other on the cheek when you greet someone and also the
