Weather Monday: high 86, low 62. These cool mornings are delightful.

N. C. Governor Jim Hunt is with us today. At 8 a.m. he is at a breakfast at the Columbus Presbyterian Church and at 9 a.m. he will be at the courthouse lawn in Columbus.

Bill Hendon, Republican candidate for U. S. Congress was in Polk County Monday with his mule caravan.

A number of high school football teams open their season Friday night. Polk Central travels to Spruce Pine to play Mitchell and Landrum will hold a Football Jamboree which involves Chapman, Christ Church and Jonesville, in addition to the Landrum Cardinals. Tryon which had some trouble scheduling games this season doesn't open until Sept. 12th.

There will be NO Bulletin on Monday, Sept. 1st. We will print Tuesday's paper on Friday, so if you want an item to go in Tuesday's paper, bring it in early.

A news release from the N. C. Highway Patrol urges all motorists to be especially careful over the Labor Day weekend.

State Finalist

Miss Jackie Blanton

Miss Jacqueline Denise Blanton, daughter of Mrs. Cleo Blanton of Landrum, has been selected as a State Finalist of the 1980 Miss United Teenager Pageant. The Pageant will be held Saturday, Aug. 30th at the Carolina Inn in Columbia, S. C.

Miss Blanton is president of the Junior Choir and a member of St. Luke C.M.E. Church and is active in her school and community. She is a member of the Landrum varsity basketball cheerleading squad and is a volunteer worker at White Oak Terrace Nursing Home. She was a contestant in the Miss Cardinal Pageant and a member of the Homecoming Court. She is Feature Editor of the 1981 Cardinal and a member of the Block L Club and Pep Club. Jackie is a senior at Landrum High School.

Moves Here

Paul F. Wheeler, formerly of Vischer Ferry, Saratoga County, New York has moved here and is living at Creekside Farm on Prince Road. Mr. Wheeler recently retired after 30 years as a Professor of Sociology at the State University of New York in Albany. During his tenure there he founded and served as first chairman of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology. Later he served as chairman of the Division of Social Sciences, Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, and Dean of the College of General Studies.

Born in Wakefield, Mass. he did his undergraduate work at the University of New Hampshire and after serving in W. W. II, earned his M.A. and Ph.D. from Yale University.

Mr. Wheeler was married to the late Martha Helen Zink of West Newbury, Mass. He has one son, Parker, who lives and works in West Newbury.

Among his interests are organic gardening and (horse) pleasure driving, both of which he hopes to promote through activities at Creekside Farm.

Gaut-Pruette Associates assisted Mr. Wheeler in his move to Tryon.

Christy Ramsey has returned to UNC-Chapel Hill where she is a second-semester senior. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ramsey of Route 1, Columbus.
