Weather Tuesday: high 87, low 57. That low of 57 makes you reach for the covers.

Congress crushed President Carter's veto of a salary increase for doctors and dentists at veterans hospitals Tuesday, overriding the president by a unanimous vote in the Senate and a lopsided margin in the House.

An Eastern Airlines jet bound from New York to Florida was hijacked to Cuba Tuesday night by three Spanish speaking men.

Angry demonstrators, protesting the slaying of a black teenager by a white policeman riot and loot in North Philadelphia.

Governor Jim Hunt spoke to a large crowd on the courthouse grounds in Columbus Wednesday morning. Gov. Hunt told the school children present that he wanted to be remembered for two things — providing 110,000 new jobs in North Carolina (including Polk County) as industry builds plants in the state; and for good public schools. Gov. Hunt has backed salary increases for teachers, providing new primary reading aides, and instituting competency tests for students, so that "no one ever again will graduate from high school

Mobile Homes To Be Judged

Judging to select area winners of the Mobile Home Improvement and Safety Contest phase of the 1980 WNC Community Development Program will be held Thursday, September 4, and Friday, September 5. Involved in the judging will be mobile home winners in ten counties.

Started as a part of the Community Development Program last year, the Mobile Home Improvement and Safety Contest offers community clubs and their mobile home residents within the 18 western counties served by the program an opportunity to compete for $1200 in prize money and recognition based on improvements made during the year.

The mobile home contest in Western North Carolina is the first of its type in the nation. It has been widely publicized as a model for other areas of the country. According to figures of the Western North Carolina Development Association, which sponsors the contest in cooperation with the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service, there are over 25,000 mobile homes in the 18 western counties. Approximately 15 per cent of the area's residents live in mobile homes, about three times the national average.

The contest has two divisions — one for individual mobile home owners and-or occupants, and one for community clubs. Only those community clubs participa-
