Thompson Signs With Furman

Friday's Spartanburg Herald had a picture of Tim Thompson of Landrum signing a track grant-in-aid with Furman University as his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thompson and Landrum Coach Danny McDowell looked on. Thompson, the S. C. Class A Champion in the 100 meters last spring had career bests of: 10:83 in the 100 meters and 22.75 in the 200 meters.

One High School

The creation of a single senior high school for all Rutherford County students in grades 10-12 is under consideration by the County Board of Education.

Girls Tennis Starts Today

The Tryon High School girls tennis season opens today at T. C. Roberson High School. The first home game is tomorrow (Wed.) with A. C. Reynolds at 4 p.m. The girls are now playing in a league with Roberson, Reynolds, Brevard and Erwin. Other matches are planned with Travelers Rest and Landrum. Junior varsity matches are planned with Gaffney and Boiling Springs.

Seven girls are returning from last year's team. There are seniors Pam Scoggins, Pam Flynn, Denise Radford, Sandy Pruette and Eileen Teal. (Eileen has just returned from a summer AFS program). Sherrie Miller, a junior, was a sectional semi-finalist with Martha Brady last year and is looking for a doubles partner. (Martha is an AFS student in Denmark). Kim Burrell, a sophomore is also returning, but is recovering from a foot injury she received in the first day of practice.

Newcomers are juniors Martha Dye and Sharon Miller; sophomores, Emily Sherer, Carolyn Roff and Brenda Keys and freshmen, Jessica Lonnes, Amy Arledge, Monta Wray and Connie MacVean.

A Junior Varsity Schedule is planned for the younger group. Douglas Stirling has been working with the girls since Aug. 15th, teaching the basic strokes, viewing training films and stressing conditioning and drills.
