Class Tonight At Saluda School

A new adult education class will begin at Saluda School tonight (Tuesday). It is sponsored by Isothermal Community College and will meet on Tuesday and Thursday nights. Persons over 18 years old may join the class any Tuesday or Thursday night in September or October between 6 and 9 p.m.

Students will work individually at their own pace. They will choose what they want to study from this list: (1) Improve basic reading, spelling, math, or writing; (2) Learn practical things that are useful in everyday life, such as banking, filling in forms and budgeting; (3) Prepare to take the GED (high school equivalency) test; (4) Study for an Adult High School Diploma.

Adults interested in the Saluda Class may call Mary Margaret Ingles at 749-5571 or Baron Nowak at 749-9591.

Other adult education classes in Polk County are held in Green Creek, Sunny View, Columbus and Tryon. For more information call Fay McIntyre at 859-6744 or Linda Hankins at 286-3636.
