Exiled Nicaraguan leader Anastasio Somoza was assassinated Wednesday in Paragua by a squad of killers who ambushed his automobile in a crossfire of bullets and bazooka fire.

In a new initiative aimed at freeing the 52 American hostages, the United States has proposed a commission to examine Iranian grievances about past U. S. actions in Iran.

Leaders in the rebellion against the proposed nine-digit ZIP code told Congress Wednesday that it's time to "zap the new ZIP to keep us from getting digit dizzy." But a U. S. Postal Service official defended the nine-digit ZIP code, set to begin in 1981, as a means to hold down postal rates and increase efficiency.

Spokesmen for the N. C. Civil Liberties Union and the Carolina Motor Club reacted cautiously Wednesday to a new evaluation system for state Highway Patrol merit pay increases. Part of the evaluation, which will go into effect in November, will be

Polk Salet

The newest publication in Polk County is "Polk Salet" published monthly by the Polk County Community Schools, L. D. Coble, Superintendent; Program Director, Joan Nash; Editor, Jan Hersey.

It will be sent home by the students each month and will tell about the school and community activities. Also included will be a community calendar which will be of interest to the students and to their parents.

Miss Frances Lloyd has returned to the University of Georgia after spending several days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Glenn, Forest Lane. Miss Lloyd has recently returned from spending the summer with her parents, Col. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lloyd in Heidleberg, Germany.

A New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gosnell of Rt. 2, Landrum, S. C. are parents of a son, Brandon Gary, born Sept. 14th at Spartanburg General Hospital.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Gosnell of Rt. 2, Landrum and the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Goode of Rt. 2, Landrum. Maternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pace and Mrs. Josie Goode, all of Landrum. The Maternal great-great-grandmother is Mrs. E. D. Pace of Landrum.

Football Tonight

After missing both games last week, we have no way to go but up.

Cherokee at Tryon

The Cherokee Braves are big and tough. They are sporting a 2-0 record and will be looking for number three. The Tryon Tigers are learning, but they don't have much size. The Braves will scalp the Tigers. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

Cherryville at Polk Central

The Ironmen of Cherryville invade Polk Central tonight at 7:30. The Ironmen are favored to take their tough conference while the Patriots have been inconsistent in their three games. Cherryville will be too big and tough for the Patriots.

Landrum at Chesnee

This should be a close one. Both teams won last week while losing their season's opener. Chesnee seems to have Landrum's number, but we believe the Cardinals will squeek by tonight. Kickoff is at 8 p.m.

COUPLES BRIDGE

Results of the Red Fox Couples Bridge held Wednesday were as follows: 1st., Roland Towle; 2nd., Evelyn Warrington; 3rd., Fred Schairer; 4th., Joan Schairer; 5th., Ellen Pettit.

To Speak To Electrical And Electronics Engineers

Keith Chirgwin of Warrior Drive, Tryon, former Chief Scientist of the Rapid Transit and Industrial Power Section, Airsearch Manufacturing Division of the Garrett Corporation, will speak Tuesday at 8 p.m. to the Electrical and Electronics Engineers at the S&W Cafeteria, Asheville Mall. Mr. Chirgwin will talk on "The Regenerative Propulsion System of The New Atlanta Subway."

13 BPW Members Attend Mtn. Area Meeting

Thirteen members of the Thermal Belt Business and Professional Women's Club attended the Mountain Area Meeting held at The Inn on the Plaza in Asheville the weekend of Sept. 6-7. The Mountain Area Meeting, planned as a "mountain top" learning experience for all members in Dist. I, II and III, had the largest attendance of all previous mountain area meetings.

Afternoon workshops in Leadership, Membership, Foundation, Public Relations and Young Careerist were attended by Sue Cochran, Sarah Edwards, Shirley Edwards, Elizabeth Gilbert, Elizabeth Laughridge,
