No official weather report for Tuesday, but it was hot for this time of year. Wednesday morning seemed to be more of the same. Everyone is looking forward to cooler weather.

The Iran-Iraq war has escalated and no one seems to know how to stop it.

How times change. Mrs. J. T. Arledge brought us a copy of the June 11, 1943 Bulletin. The A&P ad had sugar 6c lb; Lamb Chops, lb. 47¢ Pork Chops, lb. 40¢; Wheat Puffs, 3 oz. for 8¢. This was during World War II and in addition to the money, you needed so many points to buy the grocery items and so many red points when you purchased meat. No points were needed to buy fresh fish and poultry.

C. M. Fargle brought in a program of the Polk County Centennial which took place in 1955 and some wooden money used at that time. The Polk County Centennial Executive Committee: Wm. A. McFarland and Demus E. Chapman were co-chairmen; Mrs. Seth M. Vining, Carroll P. Rogers, Mrs. George F. Taylor were vice chairmen; James E. Johnson, secretary; Woodrow L. Hague, Treas.; Arthur Pack, Tryon; J. R.

Wreck Injures Polk Central Students Tues.

A two vehicle accident at the intersection of Hwy. 108 and No. 9 at Mill Spring took place Tuesday afternoon soon after the close of school at Polk Central. Four Polk Central students were taken to St. Luke's Hospital.

Critically injured was Miss Lisa Arledge, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Arledge of Sunny View, who was taken to St. Luke's Hospital and transferred to Spartanburg General Hospital with head injuries. Miss Arledge underwent surgery Tuesday night and remains in critical condition.

Louis Volley Jackson, age 14, son of Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Jackson of Mill Spring, underwent surgery in St. Luke's Hospital Tuesday night and is in the Critical Care Unit. His condition was reported as fair, but stable Wednesday morning.

Mickie Jackson Burrell, 18, was admitted to the hospital and put in the Critical Care Unit. Wednesday morning her condition was reported as good. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Jackson.

Miss Vicky Searcy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Searcy of Sunny View was treated at the hospital and released.

Highway Patrolman Don Moran investigated the accident but Tuesday night would not give out any information. He stated that it would be late Wednesday
