Dear Vinings:

I miss all of my wonderful friends in Landrum and Tryon. That area will always be home to me even though I'm living in a beautiful retirement home. It has a few linges of "The Biltmore House" though not nearly so massive.

I'm sorry to tell you that I don't seem to be getting all of the Bulletins. Today I got Sept. 11 and Sept. 15, but in days past there were more gaps between and I've never gotten the in-betweens. I hope you can know how I cherish it and I'm not blaming you.

Guess I'll just say it's Uncle Sam's fault.

Fondly,
"Sunny"

Mrs. William Alexander

Man Killed In Wreck

A 21-year-old man was killed instantly early Saturday when the truck he was riding in overturned on Old County Line Road south of Rutherfordton, the highway patrol reported.

Trooper J. H. Smart identified the man as Douglas Franklin Oates of Rutherfordton.

Smart said the wreck occurred about five minutes after midnight when a 1968 Chevrolet pickup truck driven by David Alan Scoggins, 20, of Rutherfordton went out of control in a curve, went off the right side of the road, hit a bank and turned over on its roof.

Oates, who was riding in the right passenger seat, was partially thrown from the truck cab and crushed under the truck roof, the trooper said. Scoggins and another passenger, Donny Hodge, 21, of Rutherfordton were not injured in the wreck 7.1 miles south of Rutherfordton.

Smart said he would charge Scoggins with exceeding a safe speed and death by motor vehicle. — Asheville Citizen
