

Pupils in one of the First classes in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) sponsored by Polk County Red Cross are pictured in action September 22 at Tryon High School. Shown practicing with a manikin to restore heartbeat by artificial blood circulation through external cardiac compression, are Nancy Trask and Rick Placak. The next CPR class, specially for women, is scheduled for Tuesday, September 30 and Wednesday, October 1, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Tryon United Methodist Church. Advance registration is at the Red Cross office, Tryon Depot, Monday or Tuesday mornings.
