

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 2, BOX 11
COLUMBUS, N. C. 28722

11 NOV 89

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

16 Pages Today

Vol. 53 — No. 174

TRYON, N. C. 28782

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 8, 1980

Price 10c Per Cop.

Weather Monday: high 65, low 39. Tuesday was a perfect fall day.

Iraqi warplanes bombed Tehran Monday and apparently captured Khorramshahr, but Iran claimed it remained in "full control" of the city.

Cleveland County officials will file a formal complaint this week with the state's judicial standard commission over the conduct of Superior Court Judge Ronald W. Howell. The dispute is over the temperature of the courtroom which the judge ordered lowered and the commissioners said that this would be a violation of the federal regulations. The commissioners face contempt of court by the judge on one hand or risk a federal fine that could be as high as $10,000.

Polk County Superior Court is in session this week in Columbus.

The U. S. Supreme Court on Monday opened its nine-month session by issuing orders in more than 900 cases. It refused to stop the National Organization for Women boycott of states that have not ratified ERA. Gave birth control clinics permission to provide contraception to teenagers without telling their parents. Left intact a Florida

Continued On Back Page

Towns Get Powell Bill Money

The State of North Carolina returns the sum equal to the amount produced by one cent tax of the regular eight cents per gallon State motor fuel tax during the preceding fiscal year be allocated to the active and qualifying municipalities. The allocations are to be used for the reconstruction, construction and reconstruction of local city streets.

Polk County Towns received the following: Columbus $12,641.59; Saluda $10,783.72; Tryon $30,253.83.

Pictures And Poetry

Col. Norm Frost of Tryon will present a three-part program of slides at the Meeting Place on Thursday, October 9th at 11 a.m. and Wednesday, October 22nd at 1 p.m. The slide segments are entitled "Yesterday", "Symphony in Color", and finally, "A Place on Earth" — a breath-taking combination of pictures and poetry narrated by Col. Frost. The program will run approximately 45 minutes. The public is invited.

Col. Frost is very professional with his photography as his wife, Betty, is with her theater responsibilities.

Central Business Committee Meets

The Central Business District Committee will meet Wed., Oct. 15th at 7 p.m. in the Tryon Town Hall.

Stamp Exhibition

The members of the Spartanburg Stamp Club will host their first stamp exhibition and bourse October 11th and 12th at the Woodland Heights Recreation Center, 1216 Reidville Road in Spartanburg, S. C. The exhibits will include several award winning collections.

According to Fred Brown, Postmaster of Spartanburg, The U. S. Postal Service will display and sell the latest U. S. commemoratives. Regional Community Relations Director of the Post Service, Milford Forrester has confirmed the approval of a special cancellation for use at this show. The cancellation is in the shape of a colonial musket used in the Battle of King's Mountain. The special cachet design for this show is by Patty Waller of Greenville and depicts an "Over the Mountain Man" advancing on King's Mountain.

The show will open both days from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Admission to the stamp show and slide presentation is free.

Little Cards Win

The O. P. Earle Little Cards (4th graders) beat the Holly Springs Bulldogs 6-0 Monday afternoon at Chapman High School. Mark Orduna scored the only TD on a 30 yard reverse.

Read The Bulletin
For Local News

Spend 12 Hours In Lifeboard

Tuesday's Charlotte Observer had a story by Jim Durnbell on Mr. and Mrs. Stanislas Czetwertynski of Tryon and their rescue from the Dutch luxury liner Prinsendam, which burned at sea Saturday off the coast of Alaska. They spent 12 hours in a life boat and according to the article Mr. Czetwertynski said that the sea was rough and that he and a lot of people were sea sick. "I looked about me and I said to myself, this is the kind of thing that happens only in the books or the movies but now we have our Titanic."

"We were in the lifeboard from about 1 o'clock in the morning to about 1 in the afternoon. The waves were quite strong. The sea was very rough. The temperature was around 40."

The article stated that Czetwertynski said that he saw no instances reported in wire service stories of young crew members pushing elderly women aside to be first in the lifeboats."

Gets Every Copy

In renewing their subscription to the Bulletin, Mrs. Mark Caldwell of Spartanburg writes: "We sure enjoy our Bulletin — never miss a copy and always on time. I can't remember when a copy has not arrived."