Price 10c Per Cop:

Weather Wednesday: high 76, low 44. You just can't beat this weather. Thursday was another beautiful fall day.

The red of the dogwoods and sourwoods are being joined by the yellow of the poplars as the woods begin their fall color show.

Wednesday's Charlotte Observer had a picture of Dawn Schliske of Peniel Road along with Fred Thomas leading the Overmountain Marchers into the Kings Mountain Battleground Area Tuesday to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the march that ended with the battle of Kings Mountain.

Welcome home to our travelers who survived the burning cruise liner Prinsendam off the Alaskan coast. Wednesday night, WSPA-TV interviewed Mr. and Mrs. Stanislas Czetwertynski at their home in Tryon and WLOS-TV interviewed Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Deobald at their home in Tryon. Both couples praised the crew of the ship and felt as if they would make it to their homes. They have quite an experience to tell their Tryon friends.

Today, "Yankee Doodle Dandy" will be at the Fine Arts Center at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Saturday beginning at 11:30

Meets Monday

The Tryon Town Council will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Town Hall

Safety Patrols On School Buses

The District I Board of Trustees voted Tuesday night to put safety patrols on every bus in School District I. Patrols will be recruited from students in grades 9-12. They will be furnished raincoats, hats, belts and badges and paid $30 a month. District I will be the first school district in Spartanburg County to use paid safety patrols on a district-wide basis.

"Sooner Than You Think"

Leslie Pitton will be guest speaker for the eleven o'clock worship service Saturday morning, October 11, in the Tryon Seventh-day Adventist Church. He will be speaking about the second coming of Christ, and has entitled his sermon "Sooner Than You Think". Visitors are welcome.

Before his retirement to his home on Rt. 1, Tryon, Pitton was Public Relations Director for the Washington Adventist Hospital in Takoma Park, Md. Prior to that, he was Public Relations and Religious Liberty Secretary for the Carolina Conference of Adventists, with headquarters in Charlotte, a position he accepted from his post as pastor of the Spartanburg Adventist Church.

In Ohio

Miss Jennifer Fisher

Jennifer Fisher — Miss Columbus North Carolina 1980, accompanied by Columbus Mayor and Mrs. Ted Owens, left for Columbus, Ohio Thursday afternoon to compete with contestants from other towns and cities across the country for the title of Miss Columbus, U.S.A.

The trio left by air from Charlotte for the three day pageant that begins today with a get acquainted luncheon for the mayors and contestants from 18 towns across the Country bearing the name Columbus. At the luncheon, contestants will exchange gifts from their committees. Jennifer will give bolts of fabric made and donated by Columbus' Hatch Mill a Division of Milliken, Co., and T-shirts carrying the Columbus 125th anniversary seal made by

Football Tonight

This week all three area teams play away from home.

Tryon at Edneyville
The Tryon Tigers travel to Edneyville tonight without the services of Jimmy Clement who injured his knee last week against Landrum. The Yellowjackets are tough and in Steve Musser have one of the finest place kickers around. He has a number of field goals to his credit and one was for 43 yards. Edneyville may have the best team in the conference. The Yellowjackets are too strong. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

Polk Central at Cherokee
The Polk Central Patriots travel to Cherokee. The Braves are favored to win the Conference and have a big tough line. The Patriots gave the Braves a battle last year before giving way in the final quarter. Cherokee doesn't score too much, but then neither do the opponents. The Indians are too big and too tough. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

Landrum at Christ Church
The Landrum Cardinals go to Greenville tonight to play Christ Church. The Cardinals open their Conference play and should win, but Christ Church gave them a battle last year. Kickoff is at 8 p.m.
