Weather Thursday: high 80, low 53. Friday was another beautiful fall day.

Friday's Asheville Citizen and Spartanburg Herald had pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Stanislas Czetwertynski and Lt. Col. and Mrs. Harvey Deobald with interviews about their escape from the burning cruise ship Prinsendam and their rescue from life boats at sea.

Iran claimed Iraq fired missiles into two Iranian cities Thursday, invicting the highest casualty toll of any action in the war.

President Carter was in Winston-Salem Thursday, giving North Carolinans the Democratic version of history.

More Fatalities With Small Cars

The U. S. Department of Transportation's latest series of new car crash tests has reinforced predictions that the growing number of small cars on the nation's highways will result in sharp increases in fatalities and serious injuries unless significant improvements are made in car safety.

In the safety tests the American small cars come out way ahead of the foreign models.

Communication

Sunday Evening
October 5, 1980

Please give my regards to the passenger on the Prinsendam (he had an incredible long name) who was interviewed tonight by CBS evening news. He represented Tryon with eloquence and made me proud to be from Carolina.

The mountains attract and nurture people of character with the resolve to face challenges and humility to thank God for their achievements. This is obviously such a man.

Sincerely,
Carolyn Hough

Auction and BBQ At Saluda Sat.

There will be an old time auction and barbecue at the Saluda School Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Barbecue lunch will be served from 12 noon to 1 p.m. Proceeds will be used to light the Saluda School ball field and for other projects of the Saluda Business Association.

Buy Acreage

Ms. Jane C. Furphy and Ms. Patricia E. O'Brien of Medford, N. Y. have purchased a 10 acre tract of land on Burgundy Lane, Polk County, Columbus Township. Bob Mueller and Bill Walker of Dean Butler Realty, Inc. handled the transaction.

Children Invited To Open House

The Tryon Fire Department will have open house tonight for children and their parents. There will be a fireman on hand to explain the equipment and the operation of the fire department. They will learn of the new radio pager system for fire alarms. Children must have consent of their parents to ride the fire truck from 7 to 8 p.m. Chief Clarence Scoggins said that everyone in the community is invited to see their fire department.

Mrs. Jim Jackson and son, David, of Aloha, Oregon were recent guests of Mrs. Nelson Jackson of Tryon.

In "Suor Angelica"

Ms. Judith Cloud will be appearing in the Florida State Opera Theater's production of "Suor Angelica" by Giacomo Puccini, Nov. 14, 15 and 16 in Tallahassee, Fla. Ms. Cloud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cloud, of Tryon, received her Master of Music degree in June (1980) and is now working on her doctorate at F.S.U. She is one of seven students who have been awarded assistantships to perform new music written by faculty and student composers in residence.

Millard-Thompson

Gail Millard of Gilkey, N. C. and Robert Thompson of Tryon, N. C. will be married November 1st at 2 p.m. at the Tryon Methodist Church.

Mrs. Millard is employed at the Polk County Mental Health Services and Mr. Thompson is with Town & Country-Knoblock Realty.

No invitations will be sent, all friends are invited.

Superior Court

There is another session of Superior Court this week in Polk County.

Audubon Society Meets Tuesday
