5 Polk Students
 At UNC-Greensboro

Greensboro — The University of North Carolina at Greensboro has an enrollment of 10,390 this fall, including five students from Polk County.

Polk County is among 95 counties in the state that are represented by students at UNC-G during the current academic year.

The Polk County students include: Tracey A. Freeman, Kay M. Keys, and Stephen E. Quinn from Tryon; and Melanie A. Taylor and Alexandria H. Watson, both from Columbus.

The five North Carolina counties which do not have students on campus are Camden, Clay, Currituck, Greene and Pamlico.

Landrum Tops
 Christ Church 28-23

The Landrum Cardinals had to come from behind to defeat Christ Church 28-23 Friday night at Greenville. The game was a spectator's delight as the lead see-sawed back and forth.

Landrum struck first on a 3-yard run by Johnny Wilkins. Gary Tucker added the placement to make it 7-0. Near the end of the first quarter Christ Church scored on a 7-yard pass from O'Brien to Hendershot. Richardson added the placement to make it 7-7.

In the second quarter Christ Church went ahead 10-7 when Richardson booted a 28-yard field goal. Just before halftime Terry Waldrop scored for Landrum from the 6 and Tucker's kick was good to make it 14-10 at half.

In the 3rd quarter Landrum stretched its lead to 21-10 as QB Red Page scored from the 1 and Tucker added the placement. Christ Church scored on a 17 yd. pass from O'Brien to Hendershot and Richardson added the placement to make it 21-17.

In the fourth period Christ Church went into the lead 23-21 when Patton went over from the three and the kick failed. Late in the 4th quarter the Cardinals put the winning points on the scoreboard on a 37-yard pass from QB Waldrop to Barry Bruce. Tucker added the placement and it was 28-23.

Landrum's Coach Steve Coley said that the team played well in spots, but wasn't consistent. He said the Cardinals were plagued with penalties and turnovers. He said the offensive line blocked better and that freshmen Red Page gave a good account of himself at QB for the 3 quarters he played. He thought that tackle Gary Tucker had his best game and that linebacker Mark Miller had two key pass interceptions and a number of tackles.

Landrum, now 4-2, will play Oakway Friday at Landrum for its homecoming game.
