Final Whing Ding At T.C.C. Oct. 19

The last event of the year for Tryon Country Club members will be a Whing Ding held on Sunday, October 19. Basis for play, with two men and two women making up the foursome, will be for all players to tee off, selecting the best ball to be advanced by the other three players hitting the next shot. Play continues, selecting the best shot, until the ball is holed out. This format is repeated on all nine holes played.

Coffee and doughnuts will be available to the contestants at the clubhouse upon completion of play.

Reservations for starting times should be made at the Pro Shop by those wishing to enter the event.
