

Volunteers Honored

In a ceremony at The Great Smokies Hilton in Asheville Saturday, Governor Jim Hunt presented four volunteer awards to Polk County residents. They are, from left to right in the photo with the Governor and Mrs. Hunt, Ruby Smith and Enid Brown, who were honored with the Governor's Volunteer Award for Individual Human Service; Maggie Kelly, who received the Governor's Volunteer Award for Individual Community Leadership; and Shirley Arledge, who received the Governor's Award for Volunteer Administration. Bertha Blomfield-Brown and Gladys Culbertson were also honored with the Individual Community Leadership Award but were unable to attend.

The ceremony was one of three in the state this fall. Volunteers and volunteer organizations from Western North Carolina were chosen by local county committees and honored Saturday.
