Margaret M. Upshaw sent us a clipping about a man named Dr. Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi, a University of Chicago professor. How would you like to spell that name day in and day out.

Mrs. Myrtle W. Littlefield of Lake Lanier received a 25 year pin in the Order of Eastern Star Saturday at the Mary Montgomery Chapter 231 in Spartanburg. Mrs. Littlefield works with McGuinn Heating and Air conditioning.

Jimmy Morris recently completed the Red Cross CPR course and was talking about how important a course he thought it was. He said that one of the members of his class had an opportunity to use her training soon after completing the course. Kaye Williams, assistant vice president of Northwestern Bank in Tryon was attending church at

Today's The Day

Plan your schedule today so that you can be at the Parish Hall in Tryon's Holy Cross Episcopal Church between noon and 5:30 p.m. The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be there and the Red Cross is trying to make up the 80 pint shortfall between blood donations since July 1, and actual blood and plasma requirements at St. Luke's during the same period. And blood and plasma must be stockpiled for the needs in the month ahead.
