Motlow Baptist Church when an elderly lady tripped, and received a severe blow to the head and deep gash on her face. When no one knew what to do, Mrs. Williams stepped forward and put into practice what she had been taught. Instant help often means the difference of life and death.

Speaking of life and death, the Red Cross Bloodmobile is at the Episcopal Parish House today from 12 noon til 5:30 p.m. We are behind in our blood quota. St. Luke's Hospital is using more blood than the local Bloodmobile visits has been collecting. So give a pint of blood -- the life you save might be your own.
