Philly Star At O. P. Earle

Lonnie Smith, a member of the world champion Philadelphia Phillies was a guest at O. P. Earle School Wednesday. He visited and talked with the children. His appearance was arranged by Mrs. Janie Summers, guidance counselor.

Weather Tuesday: high 64, low 47. Wednesday was cloudy and the weatherman was calling for rain.

Millions watched and heard the debate between President Carter and Ronald Reagan Tuesday night. The Democrats say that Carter won and the Republicans believe Reagan won. We don't believe the debate changed anyone's mind.

The Tuckasegee river near Sylva claimed four more victims — four young men found trapped Tuesday in a red 1977 Toyota just two days after a similar wreck 4 miles downstream killed three. Three of the latest victims were students at WCU business school and one was a WCU business school alumnus. All were celebrating homecoming weekend at WCU.

The light has been placed at the steps leading from Trade Street to the Depot.

The Catawba Indians sued in federal court Tuesday to regain 140,000 acres of York, Chester and Lancaster counties which they claim the state took illegally in 1840.

Tonight from 6:30 to 8 p.m. it's the Southern Style Steak or

Film Tonight At The Upstairs

There will be two films shown at The Upstairs tonight.

"Omega" is an optical poem of exhilarating beauty in which the filmmaker uses various effects to create his interpretation of the end of mankind on earth, his rebirth and liberation to roam the universe at will. This 1970 color film is 12 minutes long. "People Of A City", is an eighteen minute black and white film of exceptional photography by Swedish filmmaker Arne Suchsdorff.

These films are shown for free and the public is invited to attend. The Upstairs is located at 117 South Trade St., in Tryon.
