

reporter: "The prettiest sight in this fine, pretty world is the privileged class enjoying its privileges."

In addition to Connie, as the cool and arrogantly virtuous bride-to-be, the cast of the TLT's production will include Bob Gardner (C. K. Dexter Haven) as her first husband, Chip Kessler (Kittredge) as her finance, and Dean Campbell (Mike) as the shrewd reporter. The other members of the Lord family have been assigned to Marianne Brown, Anton Cedervall, Huston Brown, Peter Stephenson and introducing Christa Johnson as Dinah Lord. Debbie Goode will appear as the Luce photographer and Ron Mosseller will be the butler.

Lee Miller is directing the comedy which has been called "not only witty and broadly comical; but also moving in its justification of human tolerance and decency", and he is designing the interior of a handsomely furnished Main Line home. Advance ticket sales coupons will appear in the Bulletin shortly.

Ended "Secret" Contracts With County Employees

When knowledge of the existence of secret contracts with county employees came to light from previous administrations that contained "bonus" salaries hidden from the public or concealed in the county budget, Sauve blew the whistle and voted to cancel the contract.

Voted For Expanded Senior Citizen Programs

During the two years of her administration, Sauve worked for expanded programs for senior citizens that included increased funding for the senior citizen center--the Meeting Place-- through more aides, an Outreach Director to bring in more participants, a new van to provide transportation to the center for senior citizens as well as rides to doctors offices and grocery stores and a hot meals program in Green Creek Township.

Increased Funding For Deteriorating School Buildings

Coming to office in 1978, Sauve saw the needs of more than 15 years of neglect of county and city school facilities and during the next two years voted for a 99.9 per cent increase in county funds to improve and update school classroom facilities.

Filled All County Positions Only After Advertising For Applicants

Upon assuming office in 1978, Sauve instituted public advertising for ALL vacancies in county positions--paid or volunteer--allowing all citizens to have an equal chance to apply.

..It's little surprise that in four previous elections Billy Hugh Ruff has never carried his own township--Cooper's Gap--in any of his

Stood Silent While Secret Contracts With County Employees Were Signed

When in the majority on the county commission, Ruff was a party to a secret contract with former county tax supervisor that paid him a $5,000 salary supplement that was never made public. November 6, 1978.

Slashed Funding 25% For Meeting Place

Claiming that senior citizens didn't use the facilities provided for them, Ruff voted for the biggest cut ever in senior citizens programs in the county by slashing funding for the Meeting Place 25 per cent. June, 1977

Cut Funding For Deteriorating School Buildings

Despite the pressures of double digit inflation and the pleas of school officials, Ruff voted in 1978 to actually DECREASE funding for county school building repairs and improvements over the previous year. June, 1978.

Filled County Positions Without Allowing The Public To Know About Them Or Apply

Rarely advertised for county positions, paid or volunteer, filling them with friends, supporters or whoever was available without letting any citizen who wanted to apply know about the vacancy.
