Weather Thursday: high 56, low 46, rain .15. Friday was a beautiful day. The air was clean and felt crisp and good.

Tomorrow we are all equal. The poor and rich, white and black, teen-ager and aging, all have the same power for one day — voting for the candidate and party of our choice. We are fortunate to live in a country where we have an opportunity to express our opinions. Some say that one vote doesn't matter, but it does.

BPW Paper Drive

The Thermal Belt Business and Professional Women's Club reminds all residents of their paper drive being held next week, November 11 through November 16. A trailer will be parked in the Community Cash parking lot in Landrum for the collection of newspapers, magazines, brown bags, cardboard, catalogs, books and corrugated boxes. (Books must have covers removed; corrugated boxes must be knocked down, and newspapers must be tied together with no other items included or placed in brown paper bags. Plastic or waxed papers as well as absorbent papers cannot be accepted.) Residents are asked to place their items for collection in the trailer which will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily. Anyone unable to carry items to the trailer is asked to contact Linda Martson at 457-3113 or Rometta Young at 859-6494 as club members will pick up items from shut-ins on Saturday, November 15.

Money collected from this drive will benefit the club in meeting administrative expenses as well as sponsoring its various charitable functions which include scholarships and sending rising seniors to Girls State in both North and South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pospisil and children, Wendy and Matthew, have returned to Orlando, Fla. after visiting Mrs. Pospisil's mother, Mrs. Henry Bartol in Tryon.

Communication

To read constantly of how "fair and open" the County Government has become under the leadership of Opal Sauve is utterly disgusting, when we know from past experience that this definitely is not true. She was very much a part of the unscrupulous scheme concerning the selection of a tax collector last year. Let us refresh your memory.

Our son, Gene, was looking for a job near home, and, after much encouragement from others, applied for that position, which had been advertised in the newspapers. We won't go into all the sordid details except to say that his application was totally ignored with no available explanation. However the reason was soon to become obvious.

He has a good education (a Masters Degree in Economics) which doesn't make him any more qualified than others but did justify some consideration.

Opal Sauve does not know our son and how could she have made a fair choice without interviewing all applicants? She failed completely in a good opportunity to keep her promise to helping the young people, yet she has the audacity to base her campaign on the statement "she helped to bring the County's business from behind closed doors and give everyone an equal opportunity." As for the emphasis on advertising, why bother, when the jobs are automatically going to Commissioner's friends. No
