Weather Monday: high 63, low 40. Tuesday morning there was a light rain, but it didn't seem to keep voters from the polls as there were lines at all the voting places.

As this is being printed before the polling places close, we don't know how any of the races came out. No matter who won, they are now our leaders. Let's all work for a better county, state and nation. It's a privilege to have a choice.

The U. S. Supreme Court said Monday it will decide whether the nation's public schools and colleges must pay for interpreters to help deaf students in their classwork. The case could affect the educational opportunities of handicapped persons. The court also agreed to decide when broadcasters can refuse to sell airtime to candidates for federal political office.

The Harvest Sale will be held Thursday at 10 a.m. at the Congregational Church. Luncheon will begin at 11:30 a.m. at the Episcopal Parish Hall next door.

Thursday the Fashion Show at Landrum at 7:30 at the Landrum Gym. The show, which is

Attend Meeting

More than 600 Kiwanians and their wives from North and South Carolina assembled in Charlotte on November 1 to welcome Kiwanis International President Merle T. Enstad of Fergus Falls, Minnesota to the Carolina District. Also in attendance at the dinner was Tom Andrews, a graduate student of Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio, the International President of Circle K, and Jeff Magone of Missoula, Montana, the International President of Key Club. Circle K and Key Club are youth service organizations sponsored worldwide by Kiwanis.

The meeting marked the first time that the Presidents of Kiwanis, Circle K, and Key Club have appeared together at a district function. Representing the Tryon Kiwanis Club were, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Otho Gibbs, Laxton Hamrick and Norman Benham.

Lodge Meeting

Tryon Valley Chapter 411 O.E.S. will meet Thursday, Nov. 6 at 6 p.m. Esther Robinson, W.M.; Betty Thompson, Sec.

According to The Spectator, Ozark, Ark newspaper "Letter sweaters for academic achievement are being awarded students at Arkadelphia high school." Sounds like a good idea. There are also plans for an academic awards banquet.

Nominated For District Competition

Jonathan Poston

Mebane M. Pritchett, Executive Director of The John Motley Morehead Foundation has notified Jonathan Maynard Poston that he has been selected as the Polk County nominee to enter District competition for the Morehead Award. He will appear before the District Committee on December 15th.

Jonathan, a senior at Polk Central High School, is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Ernest Poston of Lake Lure. He is serving as president of the Student Council and was chief junior marshal. He is a member of the Beta Club, Key Club, Monogram Club, Pep Club and as secretary and a director of the Interact Club. He is editor of the year book and attended Governor's School. He has won the French I Award, Typing II Award and was County Winner of the Voice of Democracy contest. He is a member of the varsity tennis team. He enjoys jogging, hiking, photography and biking.

Heart Risks For Homemakers

Malcolm Wiltshire, President of the Polk County Heart Association, announces that an American Heart Association sponsored movie, "Better Odds for a Longer Life", will be presented at Quarterly Meetings of Polk County Extension Homemakers Clubs. Mrs. Jackie Henson, Polk County Extension Home Economist responsible for the Homemakers Organizations, announces the meetings are as follows: Tuesday, November 11, Agricultural Office, Columbus, 7:30 p.m.; Thursday, November 13, Basement of the Tryon First Baptist Church, 10:00 a.m.; Thursday, November 13, Hickory Grove Community Building, 2:00 p.m. The showing of the movie will precede the business meeting of the Clubs and the public is invited to view the film.

The twenty minute long film lists for viewers the risk factors associated with and contributing to "heart attack and stroke" — two leading causes of death in Polk County. The film is brought to Polk County as a public service by the members of the Medical and Community Program Activities Committee of the Polk County Heart Association. Dr. Stephen Clement, Chairman, and members: Lydia Holley, and M. Link, Nancy Wilkins and Dr. C. Lewis Wrenshall. Dr. Wrenshall is in charge of the film presentation.
